

Q&A from “Selecting a Crowdfunding Platform”

Q: If we have crowd funding capabilities in our donor management software can we build our project proposal in our existing software and still apply for a grant?

A: Yes. Christine will work with those grantees individually to figure out how you can report to us from your system to provide the match documentation required.